

Solidarity with Cuba!

July 26th is Cuba's most important revolutionary holiday, millions of Cubans will be in the streets at the same time as we celebrate here.

People in the United States get fed a steady diet of “Castro dictatorship” and other horrific portrayals of Cuba – Big Lies backed by Washington’s denying our right to travel there.

Truth is that socialist Cuba is the only country where working people run the government – which means that children, free healthcare, education, housing, and environmental protection are its top priorities.

What’s more, Cuba’s revolutionary government has uniquely extended international solidarity: sending 350,000 volunteers to defend Angola against the racist South African invasion, treating some 25,000 children from the Chernobyl disaster, and currently having over 40,000 doctors in more than 100 countries.

Learn more about Cuba from the two-dozen recent Chicago travelers there and stand together against Washington’s economic warfare, travel restrictions, and illegal occupation of Guantánamo. Join us in an evening of discussion and solidarity. Music, food, and refreshments included.
